

Dear

I have just received the results from your smear test. It found some small changes on the surface of the lining of the opening of your womb (your cervix).

It is very important that these changes are checked.

You will be asked to come to the clinic at the hospital.

An appointment letter will be sent to you in the next 8 weeks

If you do not get the appointment letter or need to Change the time or date please phone

Yours Sincerely